Jack-o'-lanterns

The name for this custom comes from an Irish folktale about Stingy Jack, an evil spirit who was forced to roam the earth for eternity with just a piece of burning coal to light his way. He carried the coal in a carved-out turnip. To ward off Stingy Jack and other evil spirits, people made their own versions of his lantern using turnips or potatoes – and eventually pumpkins – carved with frightening faces, placing them near windows or doors.
